

To Whom It May Concern:

Though I live in Montana, I support XM radio's position to provide traffic and weather information in areas where available. When I choose to visit large metro areas the availability of this information and knowing where to look for it without "channel hopping" local channels makes for a more relaxed and alert driving experience.

Respectfully Submitted,

John Hancock
Missoula, MT